Cuzin Lou Lou and Papa ventured away from Yonder last week for a quick trip and it was a fun time...well, for the most part.

About mid-way through the get-away, Papa began showing signs of being sick, and it quickly escalated to putting him in the bed for the remainder of the trip.

Shortly after lunch Saturday, Papa said he was afraid he had either eaten something that was making him sick or he had some type of stomach bug. He suggested Lou Lou go on about her day, and let him rest in the room while watching football.

A few hours later, he called Lou Lou and let her know he needed some over-the-counter medicine to help with his stomach situation.

When Lou Lou got back with the meds, it was apparent that Papa was indeed dealing with a full-blown case of something.

Lou Lou asked if she needed to take him to the local hospital to be checked out, and he said no that if he was not better by Monday he would go see the doctor back home.

"Ummm, sir. There is another whole day inbetween now and Monday," was Lou Lou's response to that.

Papa refused to go. He said he just needed some rest.

Lou Lou left the room to give him time to rest (and to keep away from the sickness). Later that evening she returned to a still suffering Papa.

Her suggestion then was to go ahead and pack up and go home. The two were planning to leave early Sunday morning anyway.

Again, Papa said he would prefer to just rest.

"Well, I can't stay in here!" Lou Lou said. "I will just mess around downstairs and come wake you up when it is time to go home."

So, with no sleep, Lou Lou drove home early Sunday morning. Papa went back to bed when they got home while Lou Lou showered and made it to church.

After church and lunch, a big 'ole nap was in store for her!

Papa is much better now, and Lou Lou managed to avoid catching whatever it was that Papa had...so, all is good. However, it may be a while before those two venture out on a trip again!

Lou Lou has decided raising parents is a tough job! Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Publisher

The temperature has dropped into the 50's for several nights recently, and it has felt like fall might actually be trying to show up! While we are more of a summer enthusiast, we must admit it has been nice to walk outside in the evenings to the cool air. We hope all the fall fans have enjoyed the cooler nights...maybe cooler days will soon arrive too.

The Elba cheerleaders made their first appearance at the AHSAA cheer competitions last week for regionals. The group of young ladies had been practicing very hard for this milestone. They came up just shy of qualifying to advance to the state cheer competition, but from what we saw and heard, they girls did an outstanding job representing their school and community!

There have been far too many shooting incidents recently and some have been a little too close to home for comfort. The news of the shooting in Wiregrass Commons Mall last Sunday afternoon was frightening. We do not visit the mall has much as we once did because many of the stores we shop have moved out of the mall, but there are still a few stores that we visit from time to time. It sent chills through us to think we could have been there at the time the shooting occurred because a Sunday afternoon visit is always possible for us. We don't know the answer for getting these things under control, but we do know that we all need to be very aware of our surrounding no matter where we go these days because apparently evil can show up anywhere at anytime.

60 Years at ESCC: Then, Now, and Looking to the Future

On September 30, 2025, Enterprise State Community College marked our 60th year of serving our community. From our first classes in downtown spaces to the vibrant campus we have today, ESCC has always focused on helping students and the community succeed.

Then: Over the years, ESCC has been part of countless stories of growth and innovation. The nationally recognized women's program and women's center supported generations of learners, while hosting the regional police academy brought professional training to our area. Our first public television classes were an early example of offering education in new formats, and the wellness center gave the community a space to focus on health. Athletics built pride and connection, with teams achieving success locally and at the state level. Throughout it all, the College found creative ways to meet the changing needs of students and the community.

Now: Today, ESCC continues to innovate to meet workforce and educational needs. Programs like Mechatronics train students for careers in manufacturing, while our Nursing program helps address the growing demand for healthcare professionals. Fully online programs give students the flexibility to learn from home while balancing work and family. Recent milestones include groundbreaking for new facilities—the first in over 30 years—and being named the site for the state's apirary testing lab, reflecting our ongoing commitment to serving the community through forward-thinking initiatives.

Looking to the Future: ESCC will continue opening doors for learners of all ages. Our soon-to-open Workforce Technology Center will train the next generation of workers, and we're creating innovative pathways for students to start and complete their career training earlier. Our mission is simple: provide high-quality education, create opportunities, and help students succeed in a rapidly changing world.

These achievements are just part of the story of a college built for the community, by the community, and always looking for new ways to make a difference. For 60 years, ESCC has opened doors and had a real impact on the lives of students and residents alike.

To everyone who has walked our halls, studied in our classrooms, cheered on our teams, or supported our work: thank you. Together, we celebrate the legacy of Enterprise State Community College and embrace the possibilities of the future. Sincerely, Daniel Long President, Enterprise State Community College

Coping with the Unspoken Grief: The Loss of a Pregnancy or Infant

The profound anguish experienced from the loss of a pregnancy or an infant is an indescribable sorrow, touching the very core of one's being. This grief, intertwined with aspirations and a bond formed from the moment of awareness, is truly profound. Observations from numerous individuals navigating this path have consistently highlighted the essential nature of self-care during such times; it is not merely recommended but imperative.

When we talk about self-care in the context of such a loss, we are not referring to the popularized notions of spa days or retail therapy. It's more about giving yourself permission to grieve and finding ways to navigate the complex tapestry of emotions that follow.

For some, the act of pouring emotions onto paper can be incredibly therapeutic. Imagine sitting down with a journal, the pages blank and waiting, and just letting your heart speak. It might be memories, letters to the little soul, or simply an outpouring of feelings. Over time, this written record can serve as a testament to your healing journey, with all its ebbs and flows.

Art, in all its diverse forms, offers a canvas to express when words fall short. Maybe it's the gentle brush strokes on paper, molding clay, or losing oneself in the cadence of music. Through art, emotions find a tangible outlet, and it becomes less about the result and more about the process of creation and expression.

Often, the grief associated with losing a pregnancy or infant can feel isolating, as though you're trapped in a silent bubble. It's essential to remember you're not alone in this. Keeping the lines of communication open with loved ones can act as a lifeline. There's immeasurable power in shared stories, empathetic nods, and even silent companionship.

And let's not forget the simple yet potent acts of self-care that root us in the present. Lighting a candle, immersing oneself in a book, dedicating a quiet moment each day to reflect, or simply focusing on deep, measured breaths—these seemingly small acts weave together to create a sanctuary of healing.

In the end, while the pain of losing a pregnancy or an infant may never truly vanish, the way we engage with our grief evolves.

I went to an AI music site on my cellphone last week and composed a song for both of our grandchildren, and while both enjoyed hearing songs about themselves, our youngest actually memorized his song and now has a dance to go along with it, while our oldest called his song a 'little creepy.' I thought it was fun just to see how easy it was for artificial intelligence to create the songs, and may add a few more to my personal library in the days to come. Watch out, no one is safe!

For what it is worth....

*** The Elba Tigers posted their first shutout in two years in a 29-0 must-win region game over Pleasant Home last week to keep their playoff hopes alive and well, but despite the shutout and the four-touchdown win, I left the stadium feeling like the Tigers played far from their best game of the season and will have to improve in a hurry in a lot of places if they are going to stretch out the season. The stat that bothered me the most was that in the first half alone Elba committed four penalties on first down to immediately put the offense behind the chains, and in the game was flagged ten times. In close games in which every possession is critical, penalties can get you beat, and that is a definite area of concern, at least to me. The punter kicking his up-back in the seat of his pants is also something that shouldn't happen in week eight, and for the second week in-a-row the Tigers failed to score after moving to a first down inside the ten-yardline. The fact the Tigers are 2-6 isn't an excuse for the mistakes that occurred last week, especially when a team is fighting for its life.

Now for the good things! The Elba offense rolled up over 400 yards in total offense and for the second straight week rushed for over 200 yards and passed for almost 200 yards. That kind of balance is hard to defend, and now that Easton McKelvy has settled in at quarterback, Tyceson Davis and Reggie Gilbert have stepped up as dangerous backs, and Gilbert, Jaden Baker and Ky'Avian Stoudemire have emerged as deep ball threats at receiver, the Tigers are a whole new animal on offense. The Elba defense was ranked dead last in the 1A ranks just a couple of weeks ago in points allowed, but in the past two weeks has allowed a total of just six points and has shown it can bow its neck when it has to. The defense is coming up with key turnovers, has made a couple of goal line stands, and has matured as the season has progressed. Elba may still have its backs against the wall as far as the playoffs are concerned, but I like the team I have seen on the field in recent weeks and expect the improvement to continue.

*** It was a week to forget for the three teams in the area as New Brockton lost a key region clash to Ashford 16-6, Kinston was simply no match for McKenzie in a 52-6 region loss, and Zion Chapel didn't enjoy its trip to the sunshine state as it was ambushed by Baker 49-6. * The Gamecocks moved the ball almost non-stop between the thirties in their loss to Ashford and did a solid job on defense against a team that is a heavy favorite to win the region. The loss certainly didn't help their playoff chances, but if they play with the same intensity they did last week you can't count the Gamecocks out just yet. * The Bulldogs scored early in the second quarter to pull within striking distance in its loss to Georgiana, but never found their way back to the endzone and were simply outmatched by the defending region champs that have scored over fifty points in every game but one this season. The season hasn't been what they had hoped for after a fast start, but the 'Dogs have built a solid 1A program and will be around for a long time to come. * The Rebels probably knew there was a chance things could get out of hand down in Baker after upsetting the Gators by one point a year ago, and that was the case as they were never really in the game. I expect the Rebels to flush the loss and come back with a vengeance this week with a state playoff berth on the line.

*** The high school playoffs are still three weeks away and hundreds of teams all across the state are still fighting for a chance to attend the post-season party. However, a number of teams in the south are already assured a spot in the post-season, and that list includes Leroy, McKenzie, Brantley, Linden, University Charter and Maplesville in 1A; Clarke County, Washington County, Luverne, Goshen, Lanett and Reeltown in 2A; Bayside Academy, T.R. Miller, Montgomery Academy, Southside Selma, Thorsby, Glenwood and Lee Scott in 3A; St. Michael's, Jackson, Handley and B.T. Washington in 4A; Vigor, Williamson, Andalusia, Eufaula, Northside, Demopolis and Central Clay in 5A; Saraland, Pike Road, Russell County, Benjamin Russell, and Hueytown in 6A; and Mary Montgomery and Central, of Phenix City in 7A. It looks like the cream has already risen to the top in a lot of regions across the state, but there is still some churning left to do and look for even more cream to rise up real soon. One thing I did notice was that all three of the non-region opponents on Elba's schedule this season are already locked in the playoffs. Bet the Tigers schedule will change before next year!

*** Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by the house over the weekend to leave this week's picks and said while the NCAA had finally brought parity to its membership, he liked it better back when there were just a couple of really good teams and an upset was really an upset, not just a surprise. Anyway, the local guesspert hit on 22 of his 26 picks last week to continue his recent hot streak, and while he admitted there were a lot of toss-ups this week, he added that is what makes it fun to pick. Here is this week's fearless forecast....

ELBA VS. GEORGIANA

The Pea River felines will head over in the woods of Butler County and try to avoid running into a litter of dark-colored Kitties that can cause a lot of pain to unsuspecting passers-by. The hometown kitties are big and fast and hard to beat at home, but the guess here is the felines will survive the trip and continue their late-season surge.

Against Georgiana Panthers

Elba Tigers hit road for key region clash

The Elba Tigers will be looking continue on a late-season surge and keep their playoff hopes alive Friday night when they travel to Georgiana to tangle with the Georgiana Panthers.

Elba has won its last two region contests over Red Level 45-6 and Pleasant Home 29-0 to move into the playoff hunt, while Georgiana has posted region wins this season over Florala 38-28, Kinston 37-34 and Red Level 52-24.

"We may not have the record we had hoped for," stated Elba's Coach Jon Cooper, "but we still have everything left to play for and this is the next step in our goal to make the playoffs. We have yet to win on the road this season and Georgiana is a really hard place to win. However, we know what we have to do and am confident the players will be ready when we kick it off Friday night."

Elba own a 10-5 series edge over Georgiana, has won the last five meetings, including two wins a year ago with a 49-22 win in the regular season and a 62-20 win in the playoffs.

"Georgiana will have athletes all over the field and has proven it can score from anywhere on the field at any time," added Cooper. "They have really quick backs, receivers that have good speed and good hands, a physical group up front and are very well coached. When you add the fact the game will be in Georgiana it isn't hard to tell we will have to play our best on both sides of the ball to bring home a win."

"On offense they are a two-back team and like to get the ball in the hands of their athletes with speed sweeps, quarterback counters and deep passes," said Cooper. "Their offensive line has three big guys that have started since the eighth grade and they do a good job anchoring the line and giving the backs and receivers a chance to do their thing. Georgiana scores a lot of points with most coming on big plays. Over on defense they use a four-man front and are very aggressive. They try to let the big guys clog up the middle and the secondary close the corners and make plays. Georgiana is third in the region standings and can clinch a playoff spot with a win Friday night. So, we know we are going to get their best game."

"For us to bring home a win Friday night we will have to continue to improve in every area and play our best on every play," stated Cooper. "If we take a play off on defense Georgiana can find a way to score, and we can't make mistakes on offense to make it easy for them. We can't turn the ball over and have to cut down penalties. It seems like at times we would rather start with a first and fifteen, and we have got to cut out the penalties to be successful. We know we have to win the next two games to make the playoffs, and know we will get a maximum effort from both opponents since they are also fighting to make the post-season. The road to the playoffs for us starts this week against a very good opponent, on the road, and we just have to do a good job coaching and the players have to play when they go bird hunting. This one may not be fun to watch for fans that enjoy spread offenses and a lot of balls in the air, but it should be won in the fourth quarter.

KINSTON 20 PLEASANT HOME 16

ZION CHAPEL VS. CALHOUN

The troops from up at Fort Jack have changed ammunition after a couple of bad hunting trips and are looking to wrap up a spot in the playoffs this week when they take the field against a litter of kitties from across the woods. The kitties have grown claws this season and left their marks on a couple of victims. However, look for a late-night dance at the fort after a big win.

NEW BROCKTON VS. STRAUGHN

The roosters from over behind the dollar store were in a bad mood when they made it back to the coop last weekend after watching a win slip away, but have to forget the pain of getting stung on its road trip and will have to be at their best this week when they host a litter of kitties that are still looking for a region title. This should be a good one.

The Elba Tigers kept their playoff hopes alive and claimed their second straight region win last week with a 29-0 homefield victory over the Pleasant Home Eagles.

Both teams failed to move the chains on their initial possessions of the night. However, the Tigers offense came to life on its next two series and scored a pair of touchdowns to grab a 15-0 lead.

The first Elba score came on a seven-play, 99-yard drive sparked by the passing of Easton McKelvy as the junior quarterback hit on three of four passes for 69 yards, including a 51-yard touchdown toss to Reggie Gilbert. McKelvy passed to Skylar Mitchell for the two-point conversion, and with 6:02 left in the first quarter the Tigers were on top 8-0.

Elba began its next series at its own 27-yardline after a defensive stand and this time the Tigers went 73 yards in nine plays to add to their lead. A 35-yard pass completion from McKelvy to Gilbert was a key play in the scoring drive, while the score came on a 7-yard run by Gilbert. The extra-point by Laquatos Edwards was good, as the Tigers lead grew to 15-0 with 9:29 left in the second quarter.

The Tigers put together a possession late in the half that ate up almost seven minutes off the clock, but a total of twenty-five yards in penalties prevented the drive from adding points, and at the half Elba went in with a 15-0 lead.

Pleasant Home came out determined to run the football in the second half and on its initial possession of the third quarter marched 73 yards on three carries by Jacob Bryan to reach a first down and goal at the Elba 9-yardline. The Tiger defensive front toughened with its backs against the goal line; however, and turned back the threat when a fourth down play was stopped one-foot short of the endzone.

Elba answered the long Eagle march with a drive of its own and behind the running of Easton McKelvy and Reggie Gilbert covered 90 yards in six plays to reach a first down at the Pleasant Home 9-yardline. A penalty slowed the match; however, and the Tigers came away empty-handed when a fourth down run was stopped short of the endzone.

Elba began its ensuing possession at its own 46-yardline after an Eagle punt and went 54 yards in seven plays to get back into the endzone. Tyceson Davis, McKelvy and Gilbert all had big runs in the scoring drive, with Davis capping the drive with a 1-yard scoring run. Edwards added the extra-point as the Tigers lead went to 22-0 with 6:27 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Elba got the ball back at the Pleasant Home 12-yardline on a pass interception by Easton McKelvy, and one play later Cassidy Carpenter bulled into the endzone from five-yards out. Edwards again added the extra-point, and with 5:47 left on the clock the Tigers had finally put the Eagles away as their lead was up to 29-0.

Tyceson Davis rushed for 107 yards and one touchdown on 15 carries to lead the Elba ground game, while Easton McKelvy added 81 yards on 12 carries and Reggie Gilbert rushed for 70 yards and one td on four carries. McKelvy completed 10 of 14 passes for 149 yards and one td, with Gilbert pulling in five passes for 109 yards and one td. The Elba defense was led by Skylar Mitchell with 5 stops, while Laquatos Edwards and Mateo Jiminez both added 4 tackles.

Jacob Bryant rushed for 115 yards on 10 carries to lead Pleasant Home on offense.

In four quarter battle
‘Brockton drops region clash to Ashford 16-6

The New Brockton Gamecocks failed to score on three trips inside the Ashford 30-yardline and saw their hopes of a region title slip away Friday night in a disappointing 16-6 road loss to the region-leading Ashford Yellowjackets.

Ashford scored on its first possession of the night on a 59-yard run by Zay Johnson, and then upped its lead to 8-0 with 4:26 left in the first quarter when Jay Ragland ran in a two-point conversion.

New Brockton was forced to punt on its initial two possessions, but came to life on its third series when Wesley Creel connected with Anthony Silar on a 71-yard pass completion to the Ashford 9-yardline. A sack backed the Gamecocks up; however, and when two passes missed their targets the scoring threat went by the board.

Creel connected with Silar on pass completions of 11 and 15 yards on the Gamecocks next possession to reach a first down at the Ashford 15-yardline, only to again see the scoring threat come away empty-handed after a penalty and a fourth down sack.

Ashford's offense came back to life following the defensive stand and marched 66 yards in 11 plays to extend its lead. Johnson scored his second touchdown of the half on a 7-yard run, and Ragland again added the two-point conversion as the Yellowjackets upped their advantage to 16-0 with just 29-seconds remaining in the half.

half ended in punts. However, New Brockton once again headed toward the Ashford endzone on its second series of the third quarter and reached a first down at the Yellowjacket 29-yardline after a 37-yard pass completion from Creel to Silar, and a 14-yard gallop by Shakir Middleton. A penalty and a sack slowed the drive, and when a fourth down pass fell incomplete the Gamecocks were again left empty-handed.

New Brockton began its next possession at its own 27-yardline following an Ashford punt and this time was able to battle its way into the endzone on an 11-play scoring drive.

A 10-yard pass completion from Creel to Gabriel Dean on first down got the drive off to a fast start, while an 11-yard pass completion to Bryant Crumpler and an 11-yard fourth down run by Silar kept the drive alive. The Gamecock touchdown came on a 16-yard pass from Creel to Crumpler, and while a two-point pay failed to produce points, New Brockton was within 16-6 with 10:04 still left on the clock.

The Gamecock defense came up with a key defensive stand on a big fourth down play by Gabriel Dean, but New Brockton wasn't able to mount a threat on its final two possessions and when the clock sounded Ashford had the win 16-6.

Wesley Creel completed 14 of 25 passes for 220 yards and one touchdown to lead the Gamecock offense, while Anthony Silar rushed for 20 yards on five carries and pulled in six passes for 140 yards. Bryant Crumpler had three catches for 40 yards and one touchdown, and Gabriel Dean had four catches for 20 yards.

Bryant Crumpler had 9 tackles, including 4 tackles for losses to lead the Gamecock defense, while Peyton Collins added 8 tackles, one sack and three tackles for losses; Cooper Medley added 7 tackles; and, Anthony Silar had 6 stops.

The Rebels, despite losing four of their last five games, can take a giant step toward the post-season with a win, while the same is true for the Tigers, who stand 2-3 in region play and can clinch only their second trip to the post-season in the last twenty-five seasons. Calhoun has region wins over Pike Lib 20-14 and Barbour County 32-12. Zion Chapel has won seven of the nine meetings against Calhoun, including a 35-0 win last season, and in their last four wins over the Tigers have outscored their opponent 150-6.

Kinston at Pleasant Home

Two long time region foes looking to pick up a win late in the season will tangle when the Kinston Bulldogs travel to Pleasant Home for a clash with the Eagles. Kinston leads the series 14-11, has won four straight meetings and won last season 48-20. The Bulldogs own a 1-4 region record and are mired in a four-game losing streak, while the Eagles have lost four of their last five games, including a 29-0 shutout to Elba a week ago,

Straughn at New Brockton

The New Brockton Gamecocks will be looking to breathe new life into their playoff hopes on Friday night when they host the Straughn Tigers. The Gamecocks will bring a 2-3 region slate into the clash and can still advance with wins in their final two region contests, while the Tigers have lost two straight region games to Ashford 22-10 and Pike County 34-28. Straughn holds an 11-7 series edge, has won three straight meetings, and last season posted a wild 36-33 win.

The Kinston Bulldogs trailed by only one touchdown early in the second quarter, but then could only watch as the undefeated McKenzie Tigers ran away and claimed a 52-6 region win over the out-manned Bulldogs, Friday night at Kinston.

McKenzie raced out to an early 16-0 lead as Ayden Willsey scored on runs of 18 and 26 yards, but Kinston got its offense on track following the second Tiger touchdown and behind the running of Judd Green and Jon Simmons marched 73 yards to get on the scoreboard. Green rushed for 29 yards on seven carries to help lead the Bulldogs down the field, while Simmons capped the drive with a 5-yard touchdown run to pull Kinston within 16-6 with 8:18 remaining in the second quarter.

The momentum didn't stay on the Kinston sidelines for long; however, as Willsey scored his third td of the half on a 5-yard run and Ziquayvion Jackson hit Mason Williams with a 29-yard touchdown toss and later connected with Jolon Davis-Warren with a 65-yard scoring strike as the Tigers carried a 38-6 lead in at the half.

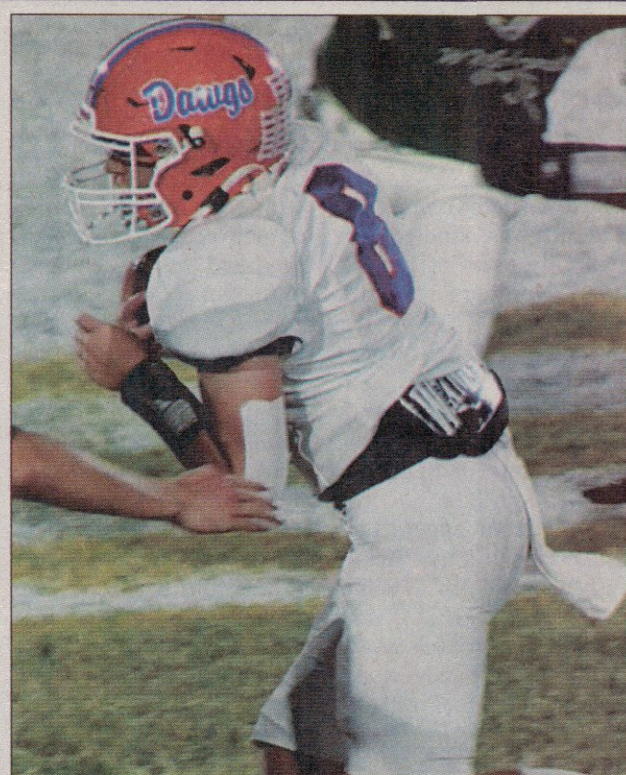

Willsey added to his totals in the third quarter on scoring runs of 3 and 64 yards, and McKenzie turned back a late Bulldog scoring threat to hand Kinston the 52-6 region loss.

Judd Green rushed for 61 yards on 16 carries to lead Kinston on the ground, while Lucas Farris rushed for 46 yards on seven carries and Easton Parker rushed for 41 yards on six carries. Jon Simmons rushed for 17 yards and one touchdown on five carries and completed 7 of 18 passes for 37 yards, with Parker pulling in three passes for 17 yards and Green pulling in two passes for 14 yards. John Davis had a fumble recovery and a pass interception to lead the Bulldog defense.

Ayden Willsey rushed for 184 yards and five touchdowns on 17 carries to spark the McKenzie offense, while Ziquayvion Jackson rushed for 95 yards on five carries and completed 8 of 9 passes for 192 yards and two td's, with Jolon Davis-Warren pulling in three passes for 97 yards and one td, and Mason Williams pulling in one pass for 29 yards and a touchdown.

The Bulldogs will travel to Pleasant Home Friday night looking to snap a four-game losing streak and get a region win over the Eagles.

Kinston Bulldog Lucas Farris (8) is off and running. Farris gained 40 yards rushing in last week's 52-6 region loss to McKenzie.

Kinston Bulldog Easton Parker (4) looks toward the sidelines, Parker rushed for 41 yards and caught three passes for 17 yards last week.

Avery Padgett serving as president of Troy University Bass Fishing Team for 2025-2026 tournament season

The Troy University Bass Fishing Team, with Avery Padgett, a junior serving as president of the team, kicked off their 2025-2026 tournament season at the Collegiate Bass Big Bass Bash September 20, 21, at Kentucky Lake, Paris, Tennessee.

Kentucky Lake, a magnet for fishermen, is a mainstream reservoir on the Tennessee River. It is the lowermost of nine reservoirs that stair step their way down the Tennessee River from eastern Tennessee. It was impounded by the completion of the Kentucky Dam in 1944. The dam backs up 160,000 acres of water, which is the largest of the TVA reservoirs.

The Bass Pro Shop Bass presented by Berkley contested with 630 anglers from colleges and universities across the United States competing. They competed in hopes of claiming their share of prizes and contingencies on the line, as well as points to count towards the Bas Pro Shop School of the Year presented by Abu Garcia.

Padgett stated that the TU team were able to sign some new members this spring. Alabama, Georgia, and Florida are now represented on the team. The more team members a school has the greater their opportunity to garner SOY (School of the Year) points.

Although none of the TU anglers finished in the top ten at the end of the two days on the water, they had eleven members to weigh in. With this number weighing in, one angler declared that it was a solid first event of the year. As a team they gained some serious ground and hoped to keep the ball rolling as they go into the next tournament.

The goal for the TU Bass Fishing Team is to finish in the top 25 of all colleges across the nation. Following their first tournament, they are currently ranked number 28.

As the TU Bass Fishing Team continues their odyssey, they will journey to Like Dardanelle, Arkansas, for their next tournament October 11 and 12.

What does the Bible say about... Anger?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"So the (fierce) anger of the Lord was kindled, or greatly aroused" (Exodus 4:14; Numbers 11:10; Isaiah 13:9, 13).

"The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in mercy, and abundant in loving kindness" (Psalm 103:8; Jonah 4:2).

"Cease from anger, and forsake wrath; do not fret – it only causes harm" (Psalm 37:8).

"A soft answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger" (Proverbs 15:1).

"He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty, and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city" (Proverbs 16:32).

"Do not hasten in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools" (Ecclesiastes 7:9).

"Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, and evil speaking be put away from you, with all malice" (Ephesians 4:31; Colossians 3:8).

"Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged" (Colossians 3:21).

Anger is defined as "a feeling of sudden and strong displeasure and antagonism directed against the cause of an assumed wrong or injury. To make angry; enrage." Other words related to anger are wrath, rage, malice, indignation, fury, temper, hatred, violence, etc.

As stated from scripture above, God is slow to anger, and yet his patience can run out and his anger be aroused because of sin and disobedience. Even Jesus became angry, and made a whip of cords, and drove people from the temple because of their wrongdoing (John 2:13-16). But in this, Jesus did not sin, but had righteous indignation.

The Bible doesn't teach that anger is sinful. Some things should anger us, but our anger should be controlled so that we do not sin in our anger. The Bible says, "Be angry, and do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your wrath, nor give place to the devil" (Ephesians 4:26-27).

There are many examples in the Bible of those who sinned in their anger. For example, Cain was angry and killed his brother (Genesis 4:3-8); and the people became angry with Stephen because he told them the truth, and he was stoned to death (Acts 7:54-60).

Adding the letter "d" to anger, and it becomes "danger". There is certainly danger in anger, so let us always follow the Lord's example and be slow to anger, and never sin because we are angry (James 1:19-20).

Anger hurts the one possessed by it more than the one against whom it is directed. To rule one's anger is well; to prevent it is still better.

What Our Bodies Tell Us

When we want to emphasize the reality of the works of God in the world, we don't have to look farther than our own bodies, Think of all the evidence of design and planning they reveal. First, is our skin, This is a marvelous covering over our entire body. From the soles of our feet to the top of our heads. It tucks everything in and keeps us from oozing out all over. Further, it has thousands of pores through which perspiration can flow to cool us. How interesting is our digestive system! We eat food, aided by saliva exerted in our mouths. It passes into our stomach, where chemical agents process it into nutrients that blood carries to cells throughout our whole body. The waste is also processed for disposal through channels prepared for this purpose. There are all special function organs of our bodies, the heart, lungs, liver, kidney and others. There are eyes with all their intricacy, the ears and the nostrils with their delicate power of smelling. There is the brain with its power of conceptualizing and problem solving. How marvelous are its abilities to control body movements and also to dream. Dreams and envision possibilities and design futures. Truly does the Psalmist say "I am fearfully and wonderfully made." J.G.V.B
